Discord as a place for free communication

WHAT: Creating a place where students can communicate with each other in a collaborative way.

WHY: Students have a lot of problems with communication, and they generally use a lot of Discord while playing video games. Discord is a “safe place” for them.

WHO: Suitable especially for students who are gamers and who are familiar with Discord.

WHAT: In Discord students can communicate with each other wherever they are.

WHICH: Each student needs a computer or a mobile device.

HOW: Discord is free for everybody.
